

COMPARISON

KANSAS PERFORMANCE CATEGORIES VS. NAEP ACHIEVEMENT LEVELS

Kansas Performance Categories	NAEP Achievement Levels
Exemplary            Reading: When reading grade level material, understands the material completely and is able to relate it to other materials            Math: When working on grade level math, always performs consistently and accurately and effectively uses multiple problem solving strategies	Advanced            Superior performance
Exceeds Standard            Reading: When reading grade level material, understands the material completely            Math: When working on grade level math, performs consistently and accurately and effectively uses problem solving strategies	Proficient            Solid academic performance, competency on challenging subject matter
Meets Standard            Reading: When reading grade level material, understands most of the material            Math: When working on grade level math, usually performs consistently and accurately, and uses some problem solving strategies	Basic            Partial mastery of the knowledge and skills that are fundamental to proficient work at a given grade
Approaches Standard            Reading: When reading grade level material, understands some of the material            Math: When working on grade level math, usually performs inconsistently and/or inaccurately	Below Basic
Academic Warning            Reading: When reading grade level material, does not fully understand the material            Math: When working on grade level math, performs inconsistently and/or inaccurately
from KSDE145210	from NAEP000048

990097

