

Kansas State Department of Education
Public Schools and District Not Making AYP 2011

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA)—currently known as No Child Left Behind—requires States to determine whether or not public schools and districts are making Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) toward the goal of having all students at a minimum proficient on the reading and mathematics State assessments by 2014. Included in AYP calculations are participation rates on the assessments, attendance rates and graduation rates. AYP is met when all students and all disaggregated student groups (i.e. free and reduced lunch) meet the criteria.

Information regarding the schools and districts not making AYP for the 2010-11 testing cycle follows:

Kansas Public Schools	2010	2011	Kansas Public School Districts	2010	2011
Schools making AYP	1,126	1,148	Districts making AYP	211	211
*AYP not yet determined	0	6	*AYP not yet determined	0	1
Schools not Making AYP	254	213	Districts not Making AYP	82	77
Schools not making AYP in reading	166	129	Districts not making AYP in reading	61	50
Schools not making AYP in math	182	157	Districts not making AYP in math	54	48
Schools not meeting Attendance rate goal	0	1	Districts not meeting Attendance rate goal	0	1
Schools not meeting Graduation rate goal	9	5	Districts not meeting Graduation rate goal	7	10

*AYP calculations for USD 418 McPherson are not completed yet; they are not included in the data on AYP. The district was granted a waiver from the US Department of Education that allowed ACT assessments rather than State assessments.
