PLEASE NOTE: There may be slight differences between percentages displayed on the Assessment Results pages and those displayed on the Requirements of AYP pages.

The assessment results presented on this page include all students in the grades tested up to and during the testing window...not just those students enrolled on or before September 20. Slight differences between percentages reported for the assessment results and those reported for Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) are to be expected. The AYP calculation, as well as the Standard of Excellence calculation, is based upon the results of those students who were enrolled by September 20.

PLEASE NOTE: There may be slight differences between percentages displayed on the Assessment Results pages and those displayed on the Requirements of AYP pages.

The assessment results presented on this page include all students in the grades tested up to and during the testing window...not just those students enrolled on or before September 20. Slight differences between percentages reported for the assessment results and those reported for Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) are to be expected. The AYP calculation, as well as the Standard of Excellence calculation, is based upon the results of those students who were enrolled by September 20.
